Javier Ortiz

producer and director

Javier Ortiz was born and raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico. At the age of 16 he moved to Houston, TX to study architecture. While in school he grew a passion for filmmaking and decided to pursue that as a career instead. After completion of his Bachelor's Degree in Communications at the University of Houston, he briefly lived in Baton Rouge, LA. Soon after, he attended Full Sail University in Orlando, FL. He was able to gain experience in various productions while in school and as well as represent the school during the 2005 Cannes Film Festival in France. After his arrival back to FL he was offered a role as Associate Producer in the independent horror film Automaton Transfusion. Recently, The Weinstein Company picked up the movie for distribution. Since the end of 2005 Javier has been living in Los Angeles doing freelance work and pursuing his filmmaking career. Midnite Delite its his first work to appear in film festivals.

Alexandre Martin

writer and producer

Alexandre Martin is an independent filmmaker from Burrillville, Rhode Island. He attended school at Full Sail University, in Orlando, FL. He graduated with an Associate's Degree in Film and Video Production. While there, he was able to gain experience and knowledge in every aspect of filmmaking. His current project, Midnite Delite will be his first work to appear in film festivals, though he has worked on countless other productions in various roles, including writing, directing and producing the 2005 short mafia thriller, Dead or Alive. He is also an actor, frequently appearing as supporting characters in his films. He enjoys writing almost every genre of film and television and the different storytelling aspects of those platforms. On July 22nd, 2006, Alex packed all his belongings into his car and drove out to Los Angeles. Currently, he remains in Los Angeles, pursuing his filmmaking career.
